Oil Paintings - Watercolours - Prints

We are thrilled to bring you the Winter 2020 catalogue in PDF format. We hope that you find the layout both straightforward and informative. Viewings of any paintings can be easily arranged at your convenience, and much more of our stock can be found on our website. Don't hesitate to contact Anthony for all picture-related matters.

For 40 years Anthony Woodd has been running an art gallery in the heart of Edinburgh, Scotland. Formerly Director of the Malcolm Innes Gallery, in 2000 he launched his own gallery in Dundas Street, the centre of Edinburgh's commercial art world.

The Anthony Woodd Gallery sells traditional art – mainly nineteenth century oils, watercolours and prints covering a wealth of subjects from Scottish landscape, sporting and military scenes to portraiture, caricatures and maps. Moreover, the gallery shows the work of some of the hugely talented traditional contemporary artists working today in Scotland and maintains a selection of affordable pictures alongside sculptures in bronze, ceramic and wood. The Gallery also offers other services including restoration and valuations and Anthony Woodd is always interested in buying new works of art.

Wishing you good health and happiness for Christmas and the New Year

Anthony.

Henry Martens (1790-1868)

Henry Martens was an English illustrator and war artist, famed for his works on the Sikh and Kaffir Wars of the 1840s and the Crimean War. Several of Marten's works produced in the 1840s and 1850s are relevant uniform reference guides for the British army of the Crimea Campaign and Balaclava. Many of his works were lithographed by John Harris for Rudolf Ackermann's Eclipse Sporting Gallery. Martens was particularly known for his interest and depiction of British cavalry units. Martens exhibited pictures at various galleries including the British Institution and particularly at the Society of British Artists.
